In combination with tone 6, the blue night is the new year bearer. The year 2022 calls for compassion. So many questions occupy our minds. It remains uncertain whether we can leave the challenges and uncertainties of past years behind. Rising above the trend of polarization is perhaps the most significant challenge we face.

The blue night symbolizes your uniqueness. Your path is the path you map out from your unique self. The essence of being human is your unique self, enabling you to relate to others honestly and compassionately.

This year's dynamic is symbolized by tone 6. This tone makes you aware of the balance that may or may not exist between you and your environment. It is crucial that you stay in close contact with your inner self. Seek seclusion regularly and go into dialogue with your inner voice. Being guided by this voice, you can put everything that happens to and around you into perspective. What is going on out there, do not let it confuse you. Find your rhythm in paying attention to both your inner and outer world.

The year bearer places us in the spine, the center column of the Tzolkin. This position provides a direct connection to Source. Your process of insight concerning all that is going on will be stimulated. You are being supported to be in the here and now.

Theme and mission

Despite the new year bearer, the white mirror, the year bearer of the past year, continues to influence everything happening to and around us. The energy it represents is the theme of the year 2022. This means that clarity, insight, authenticity, and finding the truth run like a red thread through all events.

The mission connected to the blue night is 'Unlocking the Secret.' The mission's impact may be seen as broad, on a global scale, or as limited, as in your own life. Consequently, we encourage you to be aware of what comes to the surface, within yourself and in society.

We all will regularly be confronted with a lack of transparency and limiting points of view and thinking. Therefore, it is essential that everything that comes to us as truth, including our inner truth, is made subject to critical examination.

Empowerment

No one can escape the influx of increasingly intense energies here on Earth. The personal effects depend on the degree of awareness about what is happening. The inspirations and instructions you receive from Source will guide you in doing and not doing.

All that you resonate with, let it nurture you. Consult the knowledge behind the information that inspires you, especially when it assures you in being more firmly anchored in your power. Connect with and trust your inner wisdom. Your inner wisdom is your primary source of nourishment.

Intention

The red skywalker symbolizes the common thread throughout the entire third decade. The container term 'Courage' gives meaning to it. You demonstrate courage when you base your choices on your intrinsic values and standards. You pave the way to a new standard in society by doing so.

This year the blue storm takes the stage concerning all events. With this energy, it will become more apparent that outdated systems will collapse because of changing circumstances.

By living from your awakened awareness, you contribute to the consciousness-society every day. Last year's energy works as an undercurrent of the annual energy. Last year we were urged to take the lead ourselves, accompanied by a growing awareness that we can transcend the feelings of being victims of the circumstances.

This year's intention is to use your creation energy to connect polarities.

More Sensitive

The yellow seed facilitates the connection to your Higher Self throughout this year. Your true nature wants to reveal itself to be lived.

Our true nature enables us to be one with mother nature. We have the qualities to create heaven on Earth on this planet. When we all connect from heart to heart and the depths of our souls, we can make it come true.

If we open up to the daily intensifying energies, we become more and more sensitive. This can come along with feelings of restlessness and disorientation for many people.

By standing firm and tall, you can be the one who reaches out to others while being rooted in your expanded state of consciousness. In this way, you are a source of strength and support in coping with the imminent changes.

Purpose

The white dog symbolizes the purpose of 2022. This archetype is in the heart of the Tzolkin. The message the white dog conveys is that you and I, we all, may come home in a state of unconditional love for ourselves and everyone else around us.

The only way to shape the dimension of light and love that we carry as a promise within ourselves is to put self-love central. You are the pivotal person in your own life. Only then can you be a source of help to others.

From the center of the Tzolkin, you can oversee everything and everyone. In lak'ech, I am another you. The Mayans use this phrase to greet each other. This greeting gives precise meaning to your role in life. Look through your heart and recognize yourself in every other person, even when that other person's opinion and behavior is at the other end of the spectrum. You are both here on Earth to be human and to love.

Last but not least

Finally, we would like to draw your attention to a remarkable similarity. The energetic meaning of 'In lak'ech' is the same as 'Covid-19'.

This means that the pandemic wants to tell you something about 'I am another you' at an energetic level. So, it is now up to you to make it matter.
